

Please cite as: Cramer, J. (2016). Field Analysis. American Public University System.

Assignment 2 Rubric

Category	Exemplary	Accomplished	Developing	Beginning	Did not attempt
Descriptive observation and field log 10%	Rich, detailed description of day. Field log is included.	Description of day includes some details, some elaboration was needed. Field log is included.	Description of day lacked clarity in some areas and needed elaboration. Field log is included, may be very brief.	Description of day not clear, needs much elaboration. Field log is very brief.	No description of day included. No field log included.
Discussion of social norms 15%	Detailed discussion of social norms observed during the day. Reflection on how social norms shape and constrain our experiences.	Discussion of social norms observed during the day. Reflection on how social norms shape and constrain our experiences. Some elaboration was needed.	Brief discussion of social norms observed during the day. Brief Reflection on how social norms shape and constrain our experiences.	Discussion of social norms observed during the day or reflection on how social norms shape and constrain our experiences. One element is not included.	No discussion of social norms observed during the day. No reflection on how social norms shape and constrain our experiences.
Analysis of sociological concepts 20%	Clearly and correctly applied four or more relevant sociological concepts to analyze day	Applied four or more sociological concepts to analyze day. Application may be unclear, or concepts may not clearly fit the day.	Clearly and correctly applied three relevant sociological concepts to analyze day	Applied two-three sociological concepts to analyze day. Application may be unclear, or concepts may not clearly fit the day.	Applied fewer than two sociological concepts to analyze day.

Reflection 15%	Detailed reflection on role as a larger part of society and the ways people affect one another.	Reflection on role as a larger part of society and the ways people affect one another. Some elaboration was needed.	Reflection identifies role as a larger part of society, little or no discussion of the ways people affect one another.	Brief or unclear reflection on role as a larger part of society and brief or unclear reflection on the ways people affect one another.	No reflection included.
Sociological literature 20%	Detailed incorporation of two or more appropriate sources that identify ways in which sociologists analyze the sociological concepts in everyday settings	Incorporates two appropriate sources that identify ways in which sociologists analyze the sociological concepts in everyday settings. Some elaboration needed in describing the sources.	Incorporates two sources that identify ways in which sociologists analyze the sociological concepts in everyday settings. One source may not be appropriate.	Incorporates two sources that identify ways in which sociologists analyze the sociological concepts in everyday settings. Both sources are not appropriate.	Incorporates one source, or no sources.
Writing Expectations and APA Formatted Citations 10%	Follows writing expectations. Includes a title page. Included APA formatted in-text citations and full references for all paraphrased and quoted work from other sources	Some writing expectations may have been missed. Minor errors in APA formatting of citations	Writing expectations somewhat followed. Multiple errors in APA formatting of citations	Writing expectations not followed; little use of APA format	Writing expectations not met; APA format not attempted

Grammar & Spelling 10%	Author makes no errors in grammar or spelling that distract the reader from the content	Author makes a couple errors in grammar or spelling that distract the reader from the content	Author makes a few errors in grammar or spelling that distract the reader from the content.	Author makes multiple errors in grammar or spelling that distract the reader from the content	Author makes so many errors in grammar and spelling that the intent of the paper cannot be understood
---	---	---	---	---	---