

The mission of HBCU-CEEQA is to demonstrate the effectiveness of HBCUs through the use of best-practices in assessment and evaluation by leveraging the collective expertise of assessment and institutional effectiveness professionals and other stakeholders.

Vision Statement
The Historically Black Colleges and Universities Collaborative for Excellence in Educational Quality Assurance (HBCU-CEEQA) will be a leader in building the capacity to demonstrate the impact and effectiveness of HBCUs.

Back to Basics - The Higher Education Act of 1965, amended, defines an HBCU as: "...any historically black college or university that was established prior to 1964, whose principal mission was, and is, the education of Black Americans, and that is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency or association determined by the Secretary [of Education] to be a reliable authority as to the quality of training offered or is, according to such an agency or association, making reasonable progress toward accreditation."
Retrieved from: <https://sites.ed.gov/whhbcu/one-hundred-and-five-historically-black-colleges-and-universities/>

Members On The Move

Congratulations Howard Gibson on being named Vice President of Academic Affairs at Wiley College.	Glenn Phillips & Rebecca Graham Inching Together: Making Significant and Sustained Growth through Collaboration	Congratulations Kevin James on being named 19th President of Morris Brown College.
Amelia Parnell Policy and Research equals Student Engagement Success Ep. 21	Franz Reneau & Mark Howse Trekking Towards Sustainable Excellence	Congratulations Melva Williams and HELF on their 3-year partnership with UNCF.

HBCUs have a significant impact on Black professional and educational success, particularly in the STEM fields. HBCUs are responsible for producing:

Contact Us!